SAKGP Launch Party

What an amazing night last Thursday was. Our kitchen garden was transformed into a magical midsummer's 5-star function. The garden looked amazing, the food was delicious, the students did us proud and the vibe was electric. Thanks to all — in particular Ingrid Ohlsson for the paper trail slog, Ali Satchell for making the venue dream a reality, Ilana Akres for cooking up a storm and Mr Nethery for being Mr Fixit — but also all the many committee members, parents, teachers and children who put in a fantastic effort for such a rewarding result. Great PR for the school and a head start on raising the cash we need for stage 2: the building of the kitchen.

Musique sur l'herbe

We hope you are able to come and enjoy a little music and a picnic tea this evening.

Please arrive at the little school lawn at 6pm. The music will begin at about 6:30pm. Hear the brass ensemble, the 2030's, singers and instrumentalists perform a selection of pieces enjoy the dancing. The evening should conclude at about 7:30pm with a medley of festive songs.

(Please note: No alcohol – this is a school event where children are performing)

THREE BIG THANK YOU'S

Firstly, thank you to all parents who assisted the 2010 P&C in providing a most enjoyable and productive year for the school community. The P&C standards and achievements in 2010 were outstanding, setting the bar very high for the newly elected P&C. Your efforts demonstrated how a community can come together and achieve so much with so little, sowing seeds of joy and togetherness along the way.

Secondly, thank you to the outgoing president Geoff Norman and executive members Tam Elsum; Ilana Akres; Ingrid Ohlsson, for your determination and commitment, organising and guiding the P&C towards its goals. I am pleased to say that Ilana and Ingrid are not lost to us, as they have chosen instead to assist delivery of the new kitchen and catering program associated with the Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden Programme. I am so glad that some of the 2010 executive (Catherine, John, Pam and Leanne) still have the passion to contribute all over again in 2011. As the newly elected president, with no executive experience with the P&C, I would be lost without you.

My final thank you is to the parents on the new P&C Committee for 2011, executive and non-executive, for joining me on an intrepid journey into uncharted waters..... they are:

Executive

Tony Rowan	President
Catherine Ross	Vice President
John Stallman	Environment
Sam Werner	Class liaison
Pam Jacob	Treasurer
Leanne Bell	Marketing
Ali Satchell	Events

Non-Executive

Philippa Fourie	Secretary
Catherine Stallman	Clothing pool
Genevieve Carbonatto	Clothing pool

Enjoy the summer, make sure to rest, and see you all with a spring in your step in the New Year. Roll on 2011.

Merry Christmas. Tony Rowan, President
